

Position Title: Bailey Undergraduate Leadership Team

Position Location: College of Agriculture and Natural Resources, MSU, East Lansing, MI.

DUTIES: The Bailey Undergraduate Leadership Team will work in concert with the Student Director to promote recruitment, retention, and engagement efforts for the Bailey Scholars Program. Specific duties include working closely with the program admin and leadership team to plan effective engagement strategies for community members and executing these strategies. They will plan a wide variety of monthly engagement activities, and work with the student leadership team to coordinate other community relations and service events. The Bailey Undergraduate Leadership Team should plan to attend the regular BCC meetings, to be held monthly.

QUALIFICATIONS: Students in good academic standing preferred. Must be a Bailey Scholars Program undergraduate student who has successfully completed ANR 210 before fall 2025 and shown adequate engagement during previous semesters. Must be available and taking classes on the MSU campus for 2025-2026 academic year (August 20 – May 3). Excellent time management, communication, organizational, and interpersonal skills required. Must be able to function effectively in a peer-driven environment and foster student leadership development.

REQUIREMENTS: Must maintain a work schedule of 5 hours per week.

COMPENSATION: Monetary remuneration will be based on hourly wage and student previous experience for academic year (August 20 – May 3). In lieu of monetary remuneration, student may elect to receive independent study or internship credits.

APPLICATIONS: Due Monday, April 7 by 12:00 p.m. (noon). Late submissions will be considered if a suitable candidate pool is not identified by the deadline. Send resume, letter of application (focus on learning philosophy, how it will impact/incorporate your learning vision statement, and the fit to the Bailey program), and contact information for two references who have observed you in leadership positions or a job setting to Dustin Petty. Submit via email to pettydus@msu.edu. A Zoom interview will be scheduled for the following week.
