4-H Story	4	3	2	1
The 4-H story should add depth to the reader's understanding of the 4-H member's project work and overall involvement in the 4-H program. Stories should include segments of the following.  Tell about the project area in which you are applying, how 4-H helped you learn things about this area you didn't know before, how your project grew in size and scope, and some of your successes (and failures!) in the project area.  Highlight your other 4-H projects and activities, including major learning experiences, special interests and unusual situations you have encountered. Describe how 4-H participation has impacted the way you feel about yourself, influenced your school and career goals, and your use of leisure time. Tell about your future plans and the career you want to pursue.  See the 4-H Story Guide tab below for more help with your 4-H Story	The author's purpose of writing is very clear, and there is strong evidence of attention to audience. Project Knowledge and Skills	4	3	2	1
Identify up to four areas of content/project knowledge you have learned in your 4 H project. Describe what you have learned and how you learned it.  (Example) In my 4-H Goat project I have learned showmanship and nutrition. In the area of nutrition, I have learned the various feed stuffs, ration amounts and protein contents of each feed stuff. This has allowed me to raise healthy goats and get them to weight quicker. I learned this by both attending educational workshops and some by trial and error.	Identifies up to 4 skills and describes what they learned and how they learned it. Very clear identification of the skill and can show extensive knowledge of what they learned from each skill and how they learned it.
