Michigan Cottage Food Business Voluntary Registration:

Thank you for registering for the Michigan Cottage Food Business Voluntary Registration. Look for a system email receipt from 'centeric@msu.centericmail.com' that provides your unique registration number that can be used on the Cottage Food label. Please check your spam email as well for this email. Keep the email for your records to prove your unique registration number if asked. No further action is required and you can ignore the below information about being a client of the MSU Product Center.

MSU Product Center Client for Counseling Services:

If you registered for counseling services, thank you for your interest in the Michigan State University Product Center. We have received your counseling request. The next step in this process is the payment of the $100 application fee. This is a one-time fee that provides you access to unlimited business counseling hours.

To pay the $100 application fee via credit card or check, please go to this link: <https://events.anr.msu.edu/productcenter>

We also encourage you to review and upload a completed Confidentiality Disclosure Agreement at the payment link.

You should also receive an email with this information for the MSU Product Center.

If you want to register for any events that we offer, please use the same email address so that you will not need to enter all of your information again.

The following links can assist you when working with us:

- Your personalized Client Dashboard, a summary of your account information
- Setup or change your password
- Edit the email addresses for your account

Step 6: You will receive an email confirmation from 'centeric@msu.centericmail.com' that will contain your unique registration number.
