4-H Leader Spotlight: Valisa Bristle, 4-H Leader of the Year 2025

We are lucky to have many tremendous leaders in Washtenaw County 4-H. One of these leaders, Valisa Bristle of Townline Workers 4-H Club, was honored as the Leader of the Year for 2025.

Valisa is ever present in Washtenaw County 4-H as she helps with not only her own club, Townline Workers 4-H Club, but also the 4-H Livestock Auction, Buyers Buffett Committee, Project RED Committee, Livestock and Dairy Committee, the Washtenaw County 4-H Dairy Team, and so much more.

Valisa started volunteering with 4-H in 2017 when her own kids started getting involved in the program. Valisa restarted Townline Workers 8 years ago, after it had been inactive for many years. She has been very devoted to leading and growing the club, which is the second oldest in Washtenaw County.

Members of the club now participate in many livestock species including beef steers, feeder calves, dairy and lambs, and small animal species including goats, rabbits, poultry, cats and dogs, as well as still projects. Valisa has also been a great promoter of 4-H attending our 4-H Open house and helping with Junior Livestock when they had floats in parades and participated in Trunk or Treat events. She has also been a great support for the Washtenaw County 4-H Dairy Team helping chaperone youth at dairy conferences and chaperoning youth at the North American 4-H Dairy Quiz Bowl in November 2025. Valisa is also very involved in the Washtenaw County Farm Bureau P&E committee and encourages many youth from 4-H to help at Washtenaw County Farm Bureau events.

As one of her club members, Lydia Avery said, “Mrs. Bristle works hard to Make the Best Better in Washtenaw County 4-H and beyond, and I believe she deserves to be the Leader of the Year.”

Thank you so much Valisa for all the work you do for the Washtenaw County 4-H program!

If you have a 4-H leader or volunteers you would like to spotlight, please send in your information to Jenny Speyer, speyerje@msu.edu for the next newsletter.

Science, Animals, and Arts 4-H Club Community Service Project

On December 15th, 2025, 4-H Club: Science, Animals, and Arts went to Brookdale Memory Care Center in Ann Arbor, MI. The kids took part in singing carols to the residents and making Christmas Tree ornaments with them. Some songs they sang were Jingle Bells, Frosty the Snowman, Rudolph the Rednose Reindeer, Little Drummer Boy, and We Wish You a Merry Christmas. For the Christmas Tree ornaments they assisted residents, as well as made some of their own.

When finished they gave the extra ornaments to a nurse and they were hung on the residents' doors. They enjoyed doing this, had lots of fun, and they plan to do something like this again in the future.

Thank you to club reporter, Lillian Harteg, for submitting this article!
