

“Agricultural Biotechnology for a Better World”

Global Symposium at Michigan State University, USA
August 2 – 5, 2026

Organized by the College of Agriculture and Natural Resources Michigan State University

The global symposium, “Agricultural Biotechnology for a Better World” is organized to mark the 25th anniversary of the International Agricultural Biotechnology, Biosafety, and Technology Commercialization Short Course offered by Michigan State University in collaboration with national and international partners. This global symposium will assemble a diverse group of stakeholders from the global community to share their experiences towards harnessing modern biotechnology tools and applications for enhancing food and nutritional security, environmental quality, economic growth, and livelihoods in the global arena.

Symposium Themes and Sessions

- Science and Innovations
- Policy and Regulations
- Technology Transfer and Commercialization
- Public-Private Partnerships
- International Trade
- Education, Training, and Capacity Building
- Public Acceptance, Communication, and Outreach

DATE

August 2 – 5, 2026

PLACE

Michigan State University
East Lansing, Michigan,
USA

FOR MORE INFORMATION PLEASE CONTACT:

Dr. Karim Maredia,
kmaredia@msu.edu

Dr. Callista Rakhmatov, ransomca@msu.edu

REGISTER HERE:

<https://forms.office.com/r/dr2eHtZxKb>

